Vineyard Notes

A wet start to the growing season set the vineyard up with a strong start. The hot beginning to summer created the perfect growing season across the region. With an abundance of blossom there was no intervention for bird pressure early on allowing for precision canopy and crop management. This gave the fruit optimal opportunity to achieve flavour before being hand harvested.

Production Notes

The two blocks of fruit were handpicked and processed separately into stainless steel tanks where they were allowed to sit overnight. A portion of each batch was transferred to oak barrels for a wild fermentation process, while the rest was inoculated in stainless steel vats. After fermentation was completed, the batches were blended, filtered and bottled early.

Food Pairing Notes

Chargrilled garlic tiger prawns, hand made tagliatelle and crusty sourdough
